

Product Title

Q2 2017

Mattson Aspen II Training*Details*Basic

The Basic training of the Aspen II machines begins with safety and an overview of the system and all assemblies. Then advances onto hands on repair and recovery events. Details and experience of machine operations.

Advanced

The more advanced class is for engineers with basic training and/or knowledge of the machine. More than basic, the training covers removal, setup and installations of major components. The chamber is stripped and re-built. the robot pin search is covered in the finest details. Troubleshooting of errors and failures.

Customer specific

Best used for deep in depth advances in the tools repair and maintenance routines, software installations and an expert level of repair.

Benefits

- Very experienced professional trainer
- Huge amount of customers trained
- Hands and theoretical
- Safety instructions
- Customer satisfaction guaranteed
- Training can be performed on-site.
- Training can be integrated with service problems. Trainer shows other the methods and the analytical problem solving methods
- Customers can choose the type of class and set-up individual training scenarios.
- Flexible, reliable, knowledgeable